Dear Harold and Lil:

By the time you get this letter on maybe Tuesday, I hope to be nursing a hangover over the Democrats glorious victory! And of course, Hillary and Al Gore have promised to do the Macarena dance.

The election has been so negative that I wish they would bring back dueling. It does seem to me that the difference between the two parties is that the Democrats use truthful negative ads, while the Republicans just make it up.

I send you the new, improved second edition of Waketh. I added the School of the Americas in the front, to set the tone. I added an additional foreword, plus the CIA- FBI memo, a profile of you, and some other stuff. Hope you like it.

We have had a beautiful fall. Our yard has yet to have a frost. No tricks, just treats last night. I try to scare the kids by opening the door real fast. Scared the hell out of some moms! Gave away almost $15 dollars worth of candy. Which is better than eating it.

I don't have any complaints, except no time to do anything. I did go to Churchill Downs and won money. A miracle.

I wrote the enclosed letter to Earl Slater.

I will write to Jane Norris.

Got to go to the post office. I'll write soon. Glad you liked the Enquirer article. There is no doubt that some people have a more fascinating love life than others. Like Nixon once said about gay bashing in the Republican party, "I don't understand. They vote too!"

Bill
